GAPPMAYER RECHTSANWALTSKANZLEI

AUSTRIA

FIRM PROFILE

Wolfgang Gappmayer's law firm is located in Vienna, just next to the place, where the opera „The Magic Flute“ was premiered in 1791.

Wolfgang provides as his core competence legal service on international trade, export control and customs matters in Austria. His clients are small, medium-sized and listed companies but also private persons that import goods to Austria or that export goods to a „third country“ outside Austria or the EU. Wolfgang also has substantial experience in advising and representing companies and individuals on trade control issues and criminal tax (customs) law.

He lectures at the University of Applied Sciences BFI Vienna on „International Management and Foreign Trade“, is frequently called upon to speak at seminars, conferences and has published extensively.

Before founding the law firm, among other things Wolfgang worked in Shanghai and at the commercial court in Vienna.

Wolfgang Gappmayer is member of the Bar Association of Vienna, the Austrian Section of International Commission of Jurists, the European Forum for External Trade, Excise and Customs. He speaks German and English.
